It has become traditional to dedicate the yearbook to a member of the faculty. Although there are individuals on the current teaching staff who, through their unstinting efforts on behalf of the Class of '69, are worthy of such an honor, this year's edition of the Keyhole is being dedicated to an administrator who has served the Senior class not only during our final year but also throughout all our years at Littleton High School.

This optimistic, industrious member of the administrative staff has sacrificed much valuable time for the entire student body as well as for the Class of '69. Mr. Walker has always been willing to offer advice concerning such fund-raising ventures as candy drives and bake sales. He has contributed enormously to the Student Council by suggesting new projects and by displaying enthusiasm for all of the Council's activities. Many of us have experienced evidence of his desire to know us as people through the personal interest he takes in us as individuals. Therefore, the 1969 Keyhole is dedicated in sincere appreciation to Mr. Walker.

It is hard to describe with words what were my feelings on September 4th when I first saw the crowd of students of Littleton High School gathered in one of the halls.

As I looked at their faces, I could understand that in their hearts there was a warm welcome for the new A.F.S. student. And it is an important thing for someone to feel that way when he finds himself among an unknown group of people.

Their welcome was an encouragement to begin one's life beside them. Many of the students told me that I would enjoy my year at L.H.S. as past A.F.S.ers have done.

Indeed their friendliness and their willingness to help me have remained indefatigable throughout the year and have given me the best year of my life. I am making a wish that God gives me the opportunity to express my gratitude to all of my American friends.

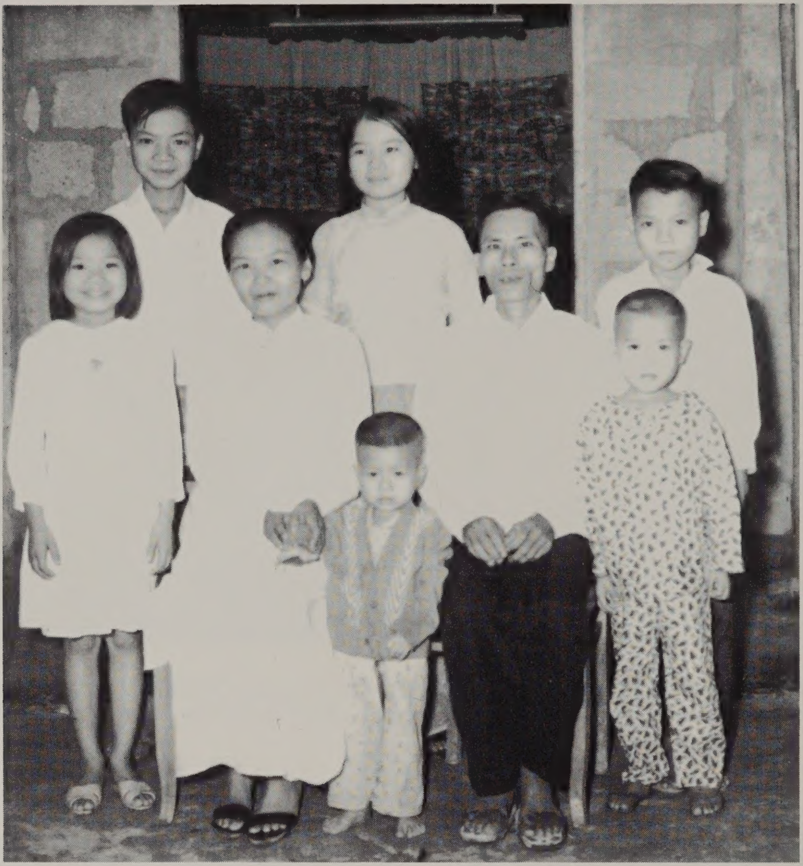
IN MEMORIAM



"A tale told by an idiot, full of sound and fury, signifying nothing"? Life holds moments for each of us in which a sense of absolute futility overpowers us. It is hard to express one's feelings upon hearing the news of the death of our Foster Child, Nguyen Thi Do, in any other manner. Do, as she wished us to call her, was an intelligent, lively young girl who was unfortunate enough to be trapped in a country blistered by violence. She was one of six children, and the annual $180 which the Student Council sent to her family provided them with sufficient food, school supplies, tuition, and a few luxury items such as a piece of furniture now and then. Letters from Do were received on a monthly basis in which she described her latest joys and accomplishments. Do achieved very high grades in her 2nd grade class, ranking among the top four students, and sometimes receiving prizes for her efforts in school. She was very happy to bring the pride of her accomplishments home to both her Vietnamese family and her American Foster Family, LHS. Since Do's letters overflowed with optimism about her life, never mentioning the war raging about her, it was easy to refrain from seriously considering her immediate involvement in the conflict. Easy, that is, until the news that Do and her family had been lost in the war and seven months of effort on the part of the organization to discover their whereabouts had been fruitless. The search was abandoned and now Do and her family are generally considered to have become numbered with the ever-increasing volume of incredibly tragic war casualties.

SUMMARY

Although we had no head coach until almost two weeks into the pre-season practice sessions, the team adjusted to a new system, and gaining confidence from a strong showing against a hard-hitting Maynard team in a scrimmage, we were ready and anxious for the new season.

AYER: After a tough first half in which we managed to score twice we came out fighting and before everyone could settle down for the third period we had iced the game with two more quick touchdowns. MURDOCK: Definitely the toughest team we faced. Overconfidence almost beat us but the amazing defensive unit led by Cronin and McNiff held the rugged Murdock team in check. Cone's PAT was decisive in a 7-6 win. WESTFORD: A team effort won this one for us. McNiff was all over the field at linebacker and Jimmy MacDougall scored twice, but it came down to the overall strength of the entire team. LUNENBURG: "Rain is the great equalizer." This cannot be repeated too often. However despite the terrible playing conditions we managed to come home with a hard-fought victory. A fake-field goal play won it, with Joe Bourgeault hitting Rich Cronin for the touchdown. TAHANTO: The team was almost looking by Tahanto to the big North Middlesex game, but after a ragged first half and a fiery pep talk we literally blew the inexperienced Tahanto team off the field. Bob McCleary showed his speed and running ability in what happily turned out to be an easy victory. NORTH MIDDLESEX: What more can be said about this game. Once again Littleton's team spirit and poise were evident in the clutch touchdown drive which won it. A fantastic team effort! We simply wanted to win more than they did and we proved we are Number (1). OAKMONT: We started to smell the championship and an undefeated season. Cone's passing led to a pleasing victory. Cone also made Littleton football history by kicking the first field goal. NASHOBA: This game was for an undefeated Washusett League championship. We dedicated this to Tom Keefe, who was severly injured in college football, and to the winning football tradition which guys like Tom had established. They were tough as they always are but following a scoreless first half, and a halftime reminder of what was at stake, we went out in the second half and won it for Tommy. We emerged as Wachusett League Champs for the second year in succession. ACTON: Our undefeated record and winning streak was on the line. But more important our pride in having never been beaten or scored upon by Acton. We ground out a tough 9-0 season. It was an appropriate birthday and Thanksgiving present for Coach Messina.

The L.H.S. Field Hockey team had a very successful season. Each of the Tigers' opponents was up for the game with Littleton with the result that every game was hard fought. Nevertheless, Littleton ended its season with a sparkling record of nine wins, two losses, and one tie.

This enviable record was achieved despite the obvious disadvantages of a lack of a practice field and the absence of a coach for the opening two games of the season. Even so, the team shared first place throughout the season, dropping out of first place as a result of a final game loss to Nashoba.

The team would like to record its deep gratitude to Miss Biggs and Mrs. Wilhelm for their assistance during that period when the Tigers were without a coach. Their unselfishness in giving up their free time to insure that the team could carry on practice sessions was certainly a strong influence in developing that spirit which contributed so heavily to the successful season we enjoyed this year.

Mr. Annaldo

Track . . . a sport demanding the utmost of physical endurance from an individual. A sport which Mr. Annaldo has coached to the boys of L.H.S. He has given the track team his complete attention and he has left his mark . . . a team deserving of merit because of the comradeship and sportsmanship which is clearly evident at practice and at the meets. So to "Omar the Tent-maker", thanks!
